

27th Berlin-Copenhagen Seminar (7.-8.2.2025)

Identity in Archaeology and Archaeological Material

Friday 7.2.2025 (Room 21.1.49)

- 09.15 Welcome (Scott Haddow)
- 09.30-10.10 Lito Kyriakidou
The person behind the pots. A look into identities of craftsmen based on Etruscan black-figure pottery
- 10.10-10.50 Dionysus Gao
The identity of the Galli in the Roman Empire
- 10.50-11.10 Tea and Coffee break
- 11.10-11.50 Caroline Amelia Lee
Adorned in blue. Lapis lazuli in Iron Age Nimrud
- 11.50-12.30 Jiaming Yu
Identity Construction in the Multi-Ethnic Populations of the Neo-Assyrian Period: Policies, Culture, and Agency
- 12.30-13.40 LUNCH (in the Wicked Rabbit, building 23)
- 13.40-14.20 Karlotta Lämmel
Exploring Identity in the Roman Rhineland. Using the Example of Food Identity
- 14.20-15.00 Marcus Wandelt
Considerations on reconstructions of group identity in residential sites exemplified by the Iron Age Heuneburg
- 15.00-15.30 Tea and Coffee break
- 15.30-16.10 Jonathan Francis Redding
The Impact of Migration on Identity in Early Neolithic Southeastern Europe

Saturday 8.2.2025 (Room 12.0.37)

- 9.30-10.10 Willemijn Havenaar
Destruction, Reconstruction, and Cultural Identity in Sumerian Cities of the Third Millennium
- 10.10-10.50 Nourhan Ahmed

Rock art as an indicator of cultural, regional and communicative identity in the Chufu region (Egypt, Western Desert)

10.50-11.10 Tea and Coffee break

11.10-11.50 Amina Sylvia Kounafa

Identity after death - archaeologists creating new identities for historical individuals based on examples from the Niemecker cemetery, Germany

11.50-12.30 Discussion

12.30-13.15 Lunch

Visit to the Carlsberg Glyptothek (closes at 17.00).